

Sixth Form Dress Code

Trousers: Smart trousers. This includes jeans which do not have rips.

Shorts: Smart knee length shorts are allowed but denim shorts and shorts with loud prints are not permitted.

Tops: Smart t-shirts are fine but large logos and graphics are not permitted. Tops should cover at least shoulder width, i.e. underwear should not be visible. Crop tops are not deemed to be appropriate. Hoodies are permitted but the hood must be permanently down.

Skirts & dresses: Dresses and skirts should be an appropriate length (just above the knee at the shortest). Miniskirts, elasticated bodycon/tube skirts and skorts aren't appropriate. Strappy dresses (unless worn with a jacket or cardigan that is not removed) are not deemed appropriate school wear.

All clothing with unsuitable visible brand names or designs are not appropriate school wear.

Footwear: Trainers are acceptable, flip flops are not deemed appropriate. If you learn in any specific environment where open-toed shoes may not be safe, please ensure you have appropriate shoes for that environment.

Clothing items that reveal too much cleavage, your shoulders, your back, your chest, your stomach or your underwear are not deemed appropriate for school.

Personal protective equipment (PPE) should be worn where a risk to health & safety is present.

Please note the following:

Studded clothes and studded jewellery are not acceptable.

Fashion accessories such as neck collars, chokers etc are not acceptable.

Ear piercings and one nose stud are acceptable but ear stretchers, plugs and tunnels are not appropriate.

No extreme hairstyles or hair colours. The natural spectrum only.

Tattoos should be covered at all times.

The John of Gaunt School lanyard and student ID card must be worn at all times.

Student Declaration

By enrolling in The John of Gaunt Sixth Form, students agree to follow this Dress Code and uphold the standards expected of senior students.
